

White Wine In The Sun

Tim Minchin

F I really like Christmas
Bb6 It's sentimental I know
F But I just really like it
I am hardly religious
Bb6 I'd rather break bread with Dawkins than Desmond
F Tutu
To be honest

C And yes I have all of the usual objections to C7 consumerism
Bb6 The commercialisation of an ancient religion
To the westernisation of a dead Palestinian
F Press-ganged into selling Playstations and beer
C But I still really like it

F I'm looking forward to Christmas
Bb6 Though I'm not expecting
F A visit from Jesus

Chorus
C I'll be seeing my dad
A Dm My brother and sisters, my gran and my mum
F Bb6 They'll be drinking white wine in the sun
C I'll be seeing my dad
A Dm My brother and sisters, my gran and my mum
F Bb6 They'll be drinking white wine in the sun

F I don't go in for ancient wisdom
Bb6 I dont believe just cos ideas are tenacious
F It means they are worthy

F I get freaked out by churches
Bb6sus4 Bb6 Some of the hymns that they sing have nice chords
F But the lyrics are dodgy

C And yes I have all of the usual objections to
C7 miseducation
Bb6 Of children who in tax exempt institutions are taught to externalise blame

And to feel ashamed and to judge things as plain
F right or wrong

C But I quite like the songs

F I'm not expecting big presents
Bb6 The old combination of socks, jocks and chocolate
F Is just fine by me

Chorus

C Cause I'll be seeing my dad
A Dm My brother and sisters, my gran and my mum
F Bb6 They'll be drinking white wine in the sun
C I'll be seeing my dad
A Dm My brother and sisters, my gran and my mum
F Bb6 They'll be drinking white wine in the sun

Bb6 And you my baby girl
F My jetlagged infant daughter
Bb6 You'll be handed round the room
Bb9 Like a puppy at a primary school

Bb6 And you won't understand
F But you will learn some day
Bb6 That wherever you are and whatever you face
Bb9 These are the people
A Dm Who'll make you feel safe in this world
F Bb6 My sweet blue-eyed girl

Bb6 And if my baby girl
F When you're twenty one or thirty one
Bb6 And Christmas comes around
Bb9 And you find yourself nine thousand miles from home

Bb6 F Bb6 C
You'll know whatever comes
C A Dm Your brothers and sisters and me and your mum.
F Bb6 Will be waiting for you in the sun

Bb9 C
Whenever you come
Your brothers and sisters
Your aunts and your uncles
Your grandparents, cousins
A Dm
And me and your mum
F Bb6 Will be waiting for you in the sun

F Bb6
 Drinking white wine in the sun
C Bb6
 Darling when christmas comes
F Bb6
 Will be waiting for you in the sun
C Bb6
 Drinking white wine in the sun
F Bb6
 Waiting for you in the sun
C Bb6 F
 Waiting for you
Bb9 C
 Waiting
F
 I really like Christmas
Bb6
 It's sentimental I know
