It's Only The Beginning
Deborah Conway and Scott Cutler

D G A
I like the way that you took advantage
D G A Bm
Stayed at my party 'til everyone went home
D
A perfect stranger
G A Bm
Need a place to lay your hat
D G E7 G
The lone ranger couldn't saddle me with that
A G A
But you were right on track

D A
It's only the beginning
Em G
But I've already gone and lost my mind
D
I feel like making daisy chains
A Em G
And playing hide and seek
D A
When it's only the beginning
Em G
The fairy dust is still in flight
D A
And this could be the love of a lifetime even if it
Em
lasts a week
G
Or maybe just a daydream

D G A
When we go walking along the river
D G A Bm
Watch the old men fishing the sunny side of the pier
D G A Bm
It's like a movie and you're my leading man
D G E7 G
The way you woo me just like Cary Grant
A G A
You wanna hold my hand

D A
It's only the beginning
Em G
But I've already gone and lost my mind
D A
I feel like breaking window panes all up and down
Em G
my street
D A
When it's only the beginning
Em G
We can bring the house down every night
D A
And this could be the love of a lifetime even if it
Em
lasts a week
G
Or just the sweetest daydream

Bridge
B E
And do you ever feel the passion
A B
To jump from a speeding train

E
I'd like to be the wheels beneath you
G A
I'd like to be the rain
G A
That could wash away your pain... It's only

D A Em G
D A Em G

Bridge
Bm D G
So hold me closer
E7 G
Let me feel you sigh
A G A
My Spanish butterfly

D A
It's only the beginning
Em G
But I've already gone and lost my mind
D A
I feel like breaking window panes all up and down
Em G
my street
D A Em G
Any day now I will hear you call
D A
And this could be the love of a lifetime even if it
Em
lasts a week
G G G
It's only... It's only... It's only

D A Em G
It's only the beginning
D A Em G
It's only the beginning It's only the beginning
D A Em G
Any day now baby' I will hear you call
D A Em G
Any Day now
